CANADA GOOSE® INDUSTRIAL

At Canada Goose, we are committed to producing the best extreme weather outerwear in the world.

We have been manufacturing innovative, high quality outerwear in Canada for over 50 years. Our authentic products are rooted in remote northern communities, on Arctic expeditions and ascents of Mount Everest. They are considered a survival tool at South Pole research stations and on oil rigs where punishing, damp cold can at times be mind-numbing. They are born of purpose and function. And every single element in a Canada Goose product is crafted to meet the demands of those who know what “extreme” really means.

Canada Goose Industrial Products are used within the following industries:

Airline Industry
Mining Industry
Numerous Government Agencies
Security Services
Canadian Military
Police Departments
